VI. Abandoned boats

- (a) Move the vessel to any other part of the Club premises without being liable for any loss or damage to the vessel howsoever caused.
- (b) Give one month's notice in writing to the member or former member at his last known address as shown in the Club Register and thereafter sell the vessel and deduct any monies due to the Club (whether by way of arrears of subscription or annual payments, mooring, dinghy park fees or otherwise) from the proceeds of sale before accounting for the balance (if any) to the member or former member.
- (c) Alternatively, if the vessel is un-saleable, after giving notice in writing as aforesaid, dispose of the vessel in any manner the Committee may think fit and deem the cost of so doing and any arrears as aforesaid to be a debt owing to the Club by the member or former member. PROVIDED ALWAYS THAT: proper evidence is available to show that all reasonable steps have been taken to trace a member or former member and that when and if the vessel is sold the proceeds of sale (less any indebtedness by the member or former member to the Club) shall be placed upon bank deposit account and retained against the eventuality of claim by the owner (whether he be the said member or former member or otherwise) for a period of six years.
- (d) The member (or former member) by virtue of his membership (or former membership) of the Club appoints the Committee his agent (such agency to continue notwithstanding him ceasing to be a member) for the above purposes and undertakes to indemnify the Club against all losses, liability and expenses incurred by it in exercising the powers vested in it detailed above.
