Zone News

After a busy period of Zone Championships held at 8 venues and selection events including regional events and open training, the zone squads have all been selected for 2016/17. The Land Days were held over the weekend of 5/6 November and all squads have now embarked on their winter programme. The squads have 6 weekends of training, culminating in the ET championships in May. Squad applications and Zone Championship entry for 2017 will open in August.
